

- "Poor Young Things might be the next big mainstream rock band out of Canada" – Paul Morris, HTZ FM

- "Let It Sleep" EP produced by Jon Drew. Credits include: (Arkells, Tokyo Police Club, Fucked Up)

- 6-Song EP release on Bumstead Records Jan 24, 2012 Label mates; The Trews, Two Hours Traffic, Yukon Blonde and sold 1,000+ copies to date

- Radio servicing: ACTIVE Rock, College, Satellite, and CBC in Canada

- Currently #28 on the Active Rock charts and climbing

- Currently #17 on the CBC Radio 3 chart and climbing

- Added to HEAVY rotation at Q104 in Halifax

- Focus track "Blame It on The Good Times"

- "Let It Sleep" reached #2 Top Seller on MapleMusic.com the week of its release

- Completed 25+ show national tour with The Trews in early 2012

- "They have excellent songs and they play like monsters. We had to step it up every night after watching them play, it's only a matter of "tours" before they become a household name in this country and abroad. – Colin MacDonald (The Trews)

- "Driving rhythms, hooky guitars and well-rehearsed chops" – NOW Magazine

- "This is a great tune" – Much Music, Matt Tracks (*about Blame It On The Good Times)

- "Lean and clean, the songs have swagger, big choruses and, oh ya, guitars aplenty" – CBC East Coast

Management:

Larry Wanagas & Tim Des Islets
Bumstead Productions Ltd.

Toronto, Canada

(416) 656 2600

lww@bumstead.com

www.bumstead.com

POOR YOUNG THINGS

Let It Sleep

Tracklist:

1. The Low Road (4:08)
2. Blame It On The Good Times (3:19)
3. Hearts and Minds (3:22)
4. Reckless Young (4:10)
5. Americanist (2:55)
6. Let It Sleep (3:46)

pooryoungthings.com